T.E.A.M. Security Is Chosen as The “Right Company” for Dodge Theater.

T.E.A.M. Security has been awarded a very prestigious position as security provider for the Dodge Theater in Phoenix, AZ. Although partnered with Dodge theater in the past, the new assignment will place security guards at the Dodge Theater for infrastructure security as well as entertainment and special events.

All employees that are interested in securing a position with this new account must have a guard card and contact Taz or Jeff. As there are new protocols to learn, one of them must ok scheduling to this account.

TAXES, TAXES, TAXES, TAXES, TAXES, TAXES,

I have decided to put help out, for anyone who needs it, doing their taxes. I will help any T.E.A.M. employee do their taxes at no charge. (although SWEAT EQUITY is always welcome) Please call me and make an appointment with me.

IMPORTANT

602-619-TEAM –
This number is a cell phone.

This is the number that you call when you report to a shift and clock off a shift ONLY.

The only time you do not have to call this number is if there is a T.E.A.M. Manager or a T.E.A.M Supervisor present. (If you are a T.E.A.M. Manager or Supervisor it is your responsibility to call for your whole group.)

If there is no sign in sheet present, then you better make sure that the hours are being called in. This number is not a sign in sheet, unless you do not have a sign in sheet. If you fail to sign in and out on your sign in sheet, guess what... you will not get paid. If you fill out a payroll protest, the correction will not be made until next payroll.

Calling 602-619-TEAM for any other reason will lead to disciplinary actions.

- This number is NOT the number you call to call off/cancel a shift.
- This number is NOT the number you call to ask about your evaluation.
- This number is NOT the number you call for scheduling.

- This number is NOT the number you call for directions.

1. Avoid carrot sticks. Anyone who puts carrots on a holiday buffet table knows nothing of the Christmas spirit. In fact, if you see carrots, leave immediately. Go next door, where they're serving rum balls.

2. Drink as much eggnog as you can. And quickly. Like fine single-malt scotch, it's rare. In fact, it's even rarer than single-malt scotch. You can't find it any other time of year but now. So drink up! Who cares that it has 10,000 calories in every sip? It's not as if you're going to turn into an eggnog-alcoholic or something. It's a treat. Enjoy it. Have one for me. Have two. It's later than you think. It's Christmas!

3. If something comes with gravy, use it. That's the whole point of gravy. Gravy does not stand alone. Pour it on. Make a volcano out of your mashed potatoes. Fill it with gravy. Eat the volcano. Repeat.

4. As for mashed potatoes, always ask if they're made with skim milk or whole milk. If it's skim, pass. Why bother? It's like buying a sports car with an automatic transmission.

5. Do not have a snack before going to a party in an effort to control your eating. The whole point of going to a Christmas party is to eat other people's food for free. Lots of it. Hello?

6. Under no circumstances should you exercise between now and New Year's. You can do that in January when you have nothing else to do. This is the time for long naps, which you'll need after circling the buffet table while carrying a 10-pound plate of food and that vat of eggnog.

7. If you come across something really good at a buffet table, like frosted Christmas cookies in the shape and size of Santa, position yourself near them and don't budge. Have as many as you can before becoming the centre of attention. They're like a beautiful pair of shoes. If you leave them behind, you're never going to see them again.

8. Same for pies. Apple. Pumpkin. Mincemeat. Have a slice of each. Or if you don't like mincemeat, have two apples and one pumpkin. Always have three. When else do you get to have more than one dessert? Labor Day?

9. Did someone mention fruitcake? Granted, it's loaded with the mandatory celebratory calories, but avoid it at all cost. I mean, have some standards.

10. One final tip: If you don't feel terrible when you leave the party or get up from the table, you haven't been paying attention. Reread tips; start over, but hurry, January is just around the corner. Remember this motto to live by:

"Life should NOT be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive and well preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, chocolate in one hand, martini in the other, body thoroughly used up, totally worn out and screaming "WOO HOO what a ride!" Ok, here it goes...

Well. it's another year and I'm still single. I tried to get y'all to find me a date with one of last year's newsletters but apparently, you've forgotten about me. The good news is, I have been touched inappropriately by someone other than a drunk female this year. I'm off to a good start! The bad news is, I was touched inappropriately by TEAM employees and they don't count. These are some pick up lines that men should NEVER use:

Your eyes are as blue as the water in my toilet bowl.

You don't look too bad, I'm guessing you only got hit once in the face with that sack of nickels, right?

You're hotter than donut grease. If God had a refrigerator, a picture of you would be on it.

You could make a glass eye cry... Hey baby, I'm single. Do you believe that shit?!

Excuse me, I have a problem and I wonder if you could help me.

I have every S.T.D. in the book except for one and I think you can give it to me.

From across the bar you looked a little on the heavy side, but as you got closer I noticed you were ugly too.

Are those implants?

If you were a laser gun, you'd be set on stunning.

Girl, you look so good, I could put you on a plate and sop you up with a biscuit!

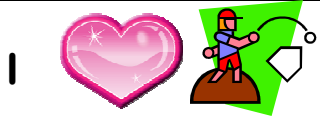

I've had quite a bit to drink, and you're beginning to look pretty good.

Let's take a shower together -- you smell.

You're ugly but you intrigue me. I'd like to screw your brains out,

I'm gonna have sex with you tonight so, you might as well be there.
 Let's bypass all the bullshit and just get naked.
 Have a great month!

Lane Honda

One of my student supervisors just handed me a belated Christmas Card. It took me by surprise and caught my attention because:
 A). It's January and B). Who the hell gives a belated CHRISTMAS card?

Sweet thing that she is, she explained that things were very hectic and stressful during the holidays. She contemplated whether to deliver the card or not and decided that the act of giving was more important than the lateness of the delivery. WOW.
 How many times have we all forgotten to say thank you to people that do things for us? We show up 10 minutes late for a shift and mumble under our breath when the 619 phone call comes to ask where we are? But God help TEAM management if the paychecks are 10 minutes late!! Oh boy, now who's pissed?

Or here's a better one. We drink 2 quarts of free Gatorade, 2 free energy drinks and then get mad when a roamer can't get over to our location for a 10-100?
 I'm not preaching to you guys out there. 54 years have taught me that if you haven't been taught how to say please and thank you by now, you'll never learn.
 What I would like to say is thank you to all the people that have done the little things that make life and work a good place to be.

It's amazing what a 20 year old can teach an old fart like me.
 Thanks Everyone.

To those of you who just joined us. Welcome to T.E.A.M.
 To those of you who work for us, and have for a long period of time, the EVENT Season is coming up, and we are going to be BUSY. Please be patient with us.

Us being the schedulers. We are doing the best we can. We don't want to bother, but if you don't call in on Monday (for the licensed) and Tuesday (Non- licensed) then it makes a lot of work on us, and a lot more on you.
 The reason we have Monday and Tuesday call in, is so that we can have you all working. We don't like to bother you so just a friendly reminder that you have to call in on those days.

Remember, who you are, where your going, and who you represent, and if you forget, then call the 619.

Lane Corbett

It's amazing how quick the weeks go by, isn't it? It feels as though New Years was just the other day, and before I know it, it's almost February! February is one of my favorite months, you know why? Valentines Day!!! Just to let you all know, I doooo love candy!!!

You know what the New Year also brings? Tax season! Everyone's W4s are here with me at the front desk, so feel free to come pick them up. For people that don't come and get them, they will be sent out on the 29th. I would also like to thank everyone for respecting what I said in my last article. Everyone did a great job of keeping their voices down while they waited for their checks. Just remember, to get your number from the scheduling office, to make the process much smoother! That's all for me this time, so everyone have fun and be safe!

DAN CRITCHFIELD

Welcome to the warehouse its always open stop in and introduce yourself they don't let me out much . thanks to all for your work in the field. if you have problems with any equipment you must let me know, as soon as you return your equipment. with a note in the bag with whatever equipment needs repair.
 your respect for your equipment is the equipment that keeps you all working. without it we wouldn't be a TEAM. THAT'S ALL THE TIME JEFF WILL GIVE ME SO SEE YOU AROUND .STAY OUT OF TROUBLE LOGISITICS/WHEREHOUE DAN.
 o-yah THANKS TO THE STO ACCOUNT SUPERVISORS FOR YOUR GOOD WORK AND RESPECT THAT YOU PUT INTO YOUR EQUIPMENT WHEN YOU RETURN IT TO ME I DO THANK YOU COACH-N-WILLIES HARDROCK PARK-IN-SWAP YOU KNOW WHO YOU ARE

THANKS JEFF FOR PUSHING ME SO HARD, I WOULDN'T KNOW WHAT TO DO WITHOUT YOUR KICK IN THE ASS 98% OF THE TIME. THE OTHER 2% I'M OFF WORK.

JEFF SWANSON

Well it's been yet another month in the wide world of TEAM. When we are busy with events, the warehouse is busy trying to keep up with the orders.

What most people don't know is that when we have a slow event week, the warehouse is busy trying to clean and repair the equipment that we use at all the events. I keep asking Mick when the warehouse gets to slow down and his response is always the same, as soon as the work is done. THE WORK IS NEVER DONE! One thing is for sure anyone willing to work hard with this company has job security.

Something that has come up recently is the amount of pride that many of you have with your job here. Because of this, Mick has agreed to let us have TEAM logo stickers and web address stickers made for any of you that would like to put them on your cars. They are black or white, (of course) and are available free of charge. If you are interested, see the warehouse/logistics staff.

Have a great month and stay safe,
Jeff Swanson

There are MANY things that everyday help or hinder us to accomplish tasks at hand or give us the reasons to use excuses on why things did not get done or were done sub-par. How you use your time to either invest in your life or waste your resources and then blame others is totally up to you.....

The Stranger

A few months before I was born, my Dad met a stranger who was new to our small Tennessee town. From the beginning, Dad was fascinated with this enchanting newcomer and soon invited him to live with our family. The stranger was quickly accepted and was around to welcome me into the world a few months later.

As I grew up, I never questioned his place in my family. In my young mind, he had a special niche. My parents were complementary instructors: Mom taught me the word of God, and Dad taught me to obey it. But the stranger He was our storyteller. He would keep us spellbound for hours on end with adventures, mysteries and comedies.

If I wanted to know anything about politics, history or science, he always knew the answers about the past, understood the present and even seemed able to predict the future! He took my family to the first major league ball game. He made me laugh, and he made me cry. The stranger never stopped talking, but Dad didn't seem to mind.

Sometimes, Mom would get up quietly while the rest of us were shushing each other to listen to what he had to say, and she would go to her room and read her books (I wonder now if she ever prayed for the stranger to leave.)

Dad ruled our household with certain moral convictions, but the stranger never felt obligated to honor them. Profanity, for example, was not allowed in our home... not from us, our parent's den today, you would still find him sitting over in his corner, waiting for someone to listen to him talk and watch him draw his pictures. His name?....

We just call him, "TV."

He has a younger sister now. We call her, "computer."

I can remember when I was young. I would play with my friends for hours on end. We would be outside until the sun went down, and then some. We built tree forts out of construction waste, rode our bikes all over the place, got an ice cream cone and kicked back and pondered life. We were the stuff. Life was good, and it still is. You just have to work harder at it.

Be safe out there....TAZ

Children often say the darnedest things:

A little girl was talking to her teacher about whales.

The teacher said it was physically impossible for a whale to swallow a human because even though it was a very large mammal its throat was very small.

The little girl stated that Jonah was swallowed by a whale.

Irritated, the teacher reiterated that a whale could not swallow

A human; it was physically impossible.

The little girl said, "When I get to heaven I will ask Jonah".

The teacher asked, "What if Jonah went to hell?"

The little girl replied, "Then you ask him".

A Kindergarten teacher was observing her classroom of children while they were drawing. She would occasionally walk around to see each child's work.

As she got to one little girl who was working diligently, she asked what the drawing was. The girl replied, "I'm drawing God." The teacher paused and said, "But no one knows what God looks like." Without missing a beat, or looking up from her drawing, the girl replied, "They will in a minute."

A Sunday school teacher was discussing the Ten Commandments with her five and six year olds. After explaining the commandment to "honor" thy Father and thy Mother, she asked, "Is there a commandment that teaches us how to treat our brothers and sisters?" Without missing a beat one little boy (the oldest of a family) answered, "Thou shall not kill."

One day a little girl was sitting and watching her mother do the dishes at the kitchen sink. She suddenly noticed that her mother had several strands of white hair sticking out in contrast on her brunette head. She looked at her mother and inquisitively asked, "Why are some of your hairs white, Mom?" Her mother replied, "Well, every time that you do something wrong and make me cry or unhappy, one of my hairs turns white." The little girl thought about this revelation for a while and Then said, "Momma, how come ALL of grandma's hairs are white?"

The children had all been photographed, and the teacher was trying to persuade them each to buy a copy of the group picture. "Just think how nice it will be to look at it when you are all grown up and say, 'There's Jennifer, she's a lawyer,' or 'That's Michael, He's a doctor.' A small voice at the back of the room rang out, "And there's the teacher, she's dead."

A teacher was giving a lesson on the circulation of the blood.

Trying to make the matter clearer, she said, "Now, class, if I stood on my head, the blood, as you know, would run into it, and I would turn red in the face." "Yes," the class said. "Then why is it that while I am standing upright in the ordinary position the blood doesn't run into my feet?" A little fellow shouted, "Cause your feet ain't empty."

The children were lined up in the cafeteria of a Catholic elementary school for lunch. At the head of the table was a large pile of apples. The nun made a note, and posted on the apple tray: "Take only ONE. God is watching." Moving further along the lunch line, at the other end of the table was a large pile of chocolate chip cookies. A child had written a note, "Take all you want. God is watching the apples.

Use the simple and loving way a child speaks and acts in our lives as parents and adults, then go and affect the world! Remember...TAZ

TAZ'S THOUGHTS

"Life should NOT be a journey to the grave with the intention of arriving safely in an attractive and well preserved body, but rather to skid in sideways, chocolate in one hand, body thoroughly used up, totally worn out and screaming "WOO HOO what a ride!"there's a lot of hidden meaning in that.

DEANN BARKER

 H e l l o again to all at TEAM. How is 2007 treating you? It's February and we already have our first Cricket show (Rockstar Supernova) on the 24th. In April there's Gwen Stefani and, according to the KNIX website, Kenny Chesney will be there on May 4. February will see Bob Seger and The Who at USAC. Spring training starts in March and the Diamond-backs open their regular season at Chase on April 9. Ostrichfest, DTC Arts Fest, Tempe Music Festival are in March and Country Thunder is in April. Those are just a few of the events we have coming up in the next few months. Check the "upcoming events" link on our website (www.teamsecurity.net). I try to update it at least once a week.

It's still kind of cold now (did you all enjoy the snow?) but the heat will be here soon enough. Remember to take water to all shifts and food to longer shifts, even if it's just a light, nutritious snack. Those last couple of hours will be much more bearable if you're not dehydrated or starving.

Talk to ya next month,

OK...since February is the "month of love" and almost everyone uses computers these days....here's a funny for ya. Enjoy!!

Dear Tech Support, Recently I upgraded from Boyfriend 5.0 to Husband 1.0 and noticed that the new program began making unexpected changes to the accounting software, severely limiting access to wardrobe, flower and jewelry applications that operated flawlessly under Boyfriend 5.0. No mention of this phenomenon was included in the product brochure. In addition, Husband 1.0 uninstalls many other valuable programs such as DinnerDancing 7.5, CruiseShip 2.3, and OperaNight 6.1 and installs new, undesirable programs such as PokerNight 1.3, SaturdayFootball 5.0, Golf 2.4 and Clutter-Everywhere 4.5. Conversation 8.0 no longer runs, and invariably crashes the system. Under no circumstances will it run DiaperChanging 14.1 or HouseCleaning 2.6. I've tried running Nagging 5.3 to fix Husband 1.0, but this all purpose utility is of only limited effectiveness. Can you help, please!!

Sincerely,

XXX

Dear XXX,

This is a very common problem women complain about, but it is mostly due to a primary misconception. Many people upgrade from Boyfriend 5.0 to Husband 1.0 with no idea that Boyfriend 5.0 is merely an ENTERTAINMENT package. However, Husband 1.0 is an OPERATING SYSTEM and was designed by its creator to run as few applications as possible. Further, you cannot purge Husband 1.0 and return to Boyfriend 5.0, because Husband 1.0 is not designed to do this. Hidden operating files within your system would cause Boyfriend 5.0 to emulate Husband 1.0, so nothing is gained. It is impossible to uninstall, delete, or purge the program files from the system, once installed. Any new program files can only be installed once per year, as Husband 1.0 has severely limited memory. Error messages are common, and a normal part of Husband 1.0.

In desperation to play some of their "old time" favorite applications, or to get new applications to work, some women have tried to install Boyfriend 6.0, or Husband 2.0. However, these women end up with more problems than encountered with Husband 1.0. Look in your manual under "Warnings: Divorce/Child Support." You will notice that this program runs very poorly, and comes bundled with HeartBreak 1.3. I recommend you keep Husband 1.0, and just learn the quirks of this strange and illogical system. Having Husband 1.0 installed myself, I might also suggest you read the entire section regarding General Partnership Faults [GPFs]. This is a wonderful feature of Husband 1.0, secretly installed by the parent company as an integral part of the operating system. Husband 1.0 must assume ALL responsibility for ALL faults and problems, regardless of root cause. To activate this great feature enter the command "C:\ I THOUGHT YOU LOVED ME".

run the applications Apologize 12.3 and Flowers/Chocolates 7.8.

T E C H T I P !
Avoid excessive use of this feature. Overuse can create additional and more serious GPFs, and ultimately YOU may have to give a C:\ I APOLOGIZE command before the system will return to normal operations. Overuse can also cause Husband 1.0 to default to GrumpySilence 2.5, or worse yet, to Beer 6.0. Beer 6.0 is a very bad program that causes Husband 1.0 to create FatBelly files and SnoringLoudly wave files that are very hard to delete. Save yourself some trouble by following this tech tip!

Just remember! The system will run smoothly, and take the blame for all GPFs, but because of this fine feature it can only intermittently run all the applications Boyfriend 5.0 ran. Husband 1.0 is a great program, but it does have limited memory and cannot learn new applications quickly. Consider buying additional software to improve performance. I personally recommend HotFood 3.0, Lingerie 5.3 and Patience 10.1. Used in conjunction, these utilities can really help keep Husband 1.0 running smoothly. After several years of use, Husband 1.0 will become familiar and you will find many valuable embedded features such as FixBrokenThings 2.1, Snuggling 4.2 and BestFriend 7.6.

A final word of caution! Do NOT, under any circumstances, install MotherInLaw 1.0. This is not a supported application, and will cause selective shutdown of the operating system. Husband 1.0 will run only Fishing 9.4 and Hunting 5.2 until MotherInLaw 1.0 is uninstalled.

I hope these notes have helped. Thank you for choosing to install Husband 1.0 and we here at Tech Support wish you the best of luck in coming years. We trust you will learn to fully enjoy this product!

Tech Support

JEFF PAVALLICINI

Once again it is that time, what time is that you might ask? I'll give you all clue, concert season. That would entail - Cricket, AVA, Dodge to name a few. Then let us add on ...oh say... Jilly's and Monterra, and Maloneys (north and south this year) an Art Fest, a Ostrich Fest, a Cinco De Mayo and Tempe Music Fest. Is this short list enough to catch your attention? Good, now what does this all mean? One is that we have another exciting year in front of us, two, that it is going to be busy, and three, that we are still the best at what we do. And why are we the best? From people like you that every event we do, you guys and gals always step up one more notch to show the pride and dedication that our clients have come to know. I would like to thank all of you that endured the bitter cold this last weekend out at Supercross and PF Chang Marathon. Best quote from that weekend...."you're not paying me to whine"

With all the up-coming events I want to remind everyone to make sure that when you are scheduling to ask the schedulers for directions, where are you meeting, parking, etc. And for downtown events to allow your-selves plenty of time for traffic, parking and getting to sign-in. I know it can be a pain with all the construction. On that note, I would like some feedback on doing a monthly or bi-monthly employee meeting to get some ideas from all of you on things we can do here in the office to address your concerns, just to meet each other, talk to supervisors..etc. A lot of times we are so scattered about the valley that some people never get a chance to really meet the office staff, supervisors, others that work the same sto's even.

I would like some help from some of you. When you have the joy shall we say of having Clear working with you or out at an event please remember this list of things.

Clear is not allowed to:

- Feed the Javelina.
- Chase the Javelina.
- Entice the Javelina.
- Leave a bait trail for the Javelina.
- Try to make a Javelina a pet.

"Eddie"

- Poke things (eyes, noses..etc).
- Bite.
- Eat paper, power cords or things that a half way normal person would not eat. And I stress half normal.
- Lick a metal detector.
- Flick switches.
- Push buttons.
- Pick up shiny things.
- Turn off her radio and wander aimlessly off (mostly trailing shiny things).
- Drive any and once again I stress "any" heavy equipment ie..trains, bulldozers, cranes.
- Go near a bookstore.we never see her again for hours.
- Go near a purse store.
- Go near a shiny store.
- Go near a pet store.
- Go near a toy store.....never mind that one, I get toys out of the deal.

Thank you all for your cooperation in this matter.

Mick Hirko

We are all very proud to announce that we are now the sole provider of security for Dodge Theater. The building was recently purchased by Live Nation, and we were asked to provide the staffing. This is a huge responsibility and even bigger honor, and we all look forward to the challenge, especially for the first time that day comes that the Suns are in the Play-offs, playing at home, the Diamondbacks are playing the Cubs at home, Korn is playing at Dodge, and Garth Brooks is playing at Cricket. I think they call that the Perfect Storm.... There are a lot of other good things happening, new business in downtown Tempe, spring training baseball is a month away, plus our first show at Cricket is in February. Life is very good in the world of T.E.A.M., with the exception of one not-so-little issue;

Last month, Clear Consommé wrote some things that were not only untrue, but downright libelous. Her allegations are not only just in her mind, but an intentional effort of her to shift the focus away from some of the incredibly bizarre things she says and does. Her quote of the month:

"Today is tomorrow, because that was yesterday"

So, now who are you going to believe? She said this in front of witnesses. This is just a minute out of the day. Comments like that flow from her on a continual basis. Want another one? How about:

"If I hadn't said it, you would not have heard it".

This is the same brainiac who wants to spend her Sunday morning skipping through the desert, trying to dig up a Gila Monster... Oh Toto....

Anyway, if it is true that laughter is the best medicine, I will live to be 200, thanks to her slap-stick antics and "memorable quotes". I have been asked several times lately what is going on with Clear's daughter, Crystal Clear. Well, I am happy to report she has not totaled a single car all year, her favorite song is still "white noise", and she is safe and sound out at WestWorld, watching some horsies. In other words, it is nice and quiet around here, and as long as they do not let her drive a golf cart out there, we should be fine.

There are a lot of great, fun and exciting things happening this year. Pav is working on losing a whole town. Lance Burton has nothing on this boy... Marlies is planning to spend a lot of time doing payroll from her new pool, Taz still wants world domination of great days, and Jeff Swanson is busy developing an Ice Man suit, to survive yet another Arizona summer. Enjoy the cold and the rain while you can, because before too long it will be blazing hot again! We are looking forward to good and exciting events, good times and hope that you all keep the Peace. I'll see you out there!

We are all very proud to announce that we are now the sole provider of security for Dodge Theater. The building was recently purchased by Live Nation, and we were asked to provide the staffing. This is a huge responsibility and even bigger honor, and we all look forward to the challenge, especially for the first time that day comes that the Suns are in the Play-offs, playing at home, the Diamondbacks are playing the Cubs at home, Korn is playing at Dodge, and Garth Brooks is playing at Cricket. I think they call that the Perfect Storm.... There are a lot of other good things happening, new business in downtown Tempe, spring training baseball is a month away, plus our first show at Cricket is in February. Life is very good in the world of T.E.A.M., with the exception of one not-so-little issue;

Last month, Clear Consommé wrote some things that were not only untrue, but downright libelous. Her allegations are not only just in her mind, but an intentional effort of her to shift the focus away from some of the incredibly bizarre things she says and does. Her quote of the month:

"Today is tomorrow, because that was yesterday"

So, now who are you going to believe? She said this in front of witnesses. This is just a minute out of the day. Comments like that flow from her on a continual basis. Want another one? How about:

"If I hadn't said it, you would not have heard it".

This is the same brainiac who wants to spend her Sunday morning skipping through the desert, trying to dig up a Gila Monster... Oh Toto....

Anyway, if it is true that laughter is the best medicine, I will live to be 200, thanks to her slap-stick antics and "memorable quotes". I have been asked several times lately what is going on with Clear's daughter, Crystal Clear. Well, I am happy to report she has not totaled a single car all year, her favorite song is still "white noise", and she is safe and sound out at WestWorld, watching some horsies. In other words, it is nice and quiet around here, and as long as they do not let her drive a golf cart out there, we should be fine.

There are a lot of great, fun and exciting things happening this year. Pav is working on losing a whole town. Lance Burton has nothing on this boy... Marlies is planning to spend a lot of time doing payroll from her new pool, Taz still wants world domination of great days, and Jeff Swanson is busy developing an Ice Man suit, to survive yet another Arizona summer. Enjoy the cold and the rain while you can, because before too long it will be blazing hot again! We are looking forward to good and exciting events, good times and hope that you all keep the Peace. I'll see you out there!
