Eve's Side of the Story

After three weeks in the Garden of Eden, God came to visit Eve. "So, how is everything going?" inquired God. "It is all so beautiful, God," she replied.. "The sunrises and sunsets are breathtaking, the smells, the sights, everything is wonderful, but I have just one problem. It's these breasts you have given me. The middle one pushes the other two out and I am constantly knocking them with my arms, catching them on branches and snagging them on bushes. They're a real pain." And Eve went on to tell God that since many other parts of her body came in pairs, such as her limbs, eyes, ears, etc. She felt that having only two breasts might leave her body more "symmetrically balanced". "That's a fair point," replied God, "But it was my first shot at this, you know. I gave the animals six breasts, so I figured that you needed only half of those, but I see that you are right. I will fix it up right away." And God reached down, removed the middle breast and tossed it into the bushes. Three weeks passed and God once again visited Eve in the Garden of Eden. "Well, Eve, how is my favorite creation?" "Just fantastic," she replied, "But for one oversight. You see, all the animals are paired off. The ewe has a ram and the cow has her bull. All the animals have a mate except me. I feel so alone." God thought for a moment and said, "You know, Eve, you are right. How could I have overlooked this? You do need a mate and I will immediately create a man from a part of you. Let's see....where did I put that useless boob?"

Now doesn't THAT make more sense than all that crap about the rib?

A quest.....

Ok, at least now I know I am not losing my mind. I found this posting on a blog site from 2004. So, I know it exists, but still cannot find the video....

Earlier today I was flicking through some channels, and if you didn't know they are doing the monthly Hitler bash on the History channel, I sometimes catch some of it to see what else they decide to use to discredit Hitler, well..... today it was Hitlers Women "Leni Reifental" (sp?). And it told the story of her documentaries on Hitler, then came up the coverage of the 1936 Olympics and it was showing footage of the whole thing, then something totally horrifying (at least to me) was shown, the narrator mentioned that the next clip was edited from triumph of the will or something and it showed Hitler in the stands around his elite watching a relay race.

I assumed he was watching a relay race because his head was slowly turning in a wide oval pattern, obviously following the runners on the field. Then something totally horrible started to happen, he slowly started to swing from left and right, at first you could say "yea, well he's probably just motioning while saying "come'on come'on!" and his body language is because he's excited".... BUT he starts to swing back and forth, more and more, baaacck and foooorth, like he was on a boat, this lateral motion started to get so violent he started rubbing shoulders with his SS men on either side of him, it was so disturbing, I almost wanted to reach into the TV screen and get him to stop, but he just kept on tilting back and forth, back and forth, over 40 times, almost like an old lady who is suffering from dementia in a nursing home.

I've been through Americas' education system and I've seen every possible smear job on Hitler, and I can honestly say this one is the only one that has me looking for answers, I know he was coming down with Parkinson's in 1945, but this was 1936 Olympics, and the footage is utterly disturbing. Does anybody have any insight or some information you could tell me if you've seen or heard about this footage?

Dear Frankir

DEAR FRANKIE: I have was checking out the T.E.A.M. website (www.teamsecurity.net) and in the Training Calendar area I noticed you have a Hands class coming up. How do I sign up for that class? – PETER PACIFIST

DEAR MR. PACIFIST: The Hands classes are scheduled by invitation only. Since the classes are taught by a Tempe Police Department Defensive Tactics Instructor, T.E.A.M. assumes additional liability for those who have been trained. Additionally, there is a cost factor involved in these classes. For these reasons we like to reserve these classes for employees who have been employed for at least 6 months. When you are approaching your 6 month mark you can request to be added to the waiting list by clicking on the class in the calendar. You will see a hyperlink to the "Author's Email Address". Just send an e-mail requesting to attend.

DEAR FRANKIE: I have been with TEAM for about a month and a half now. Per the new policy I got my guard card within 60 days of my employment. Now that I have my guard card, what do I need to do about getting a SECURITY shirt? FINALLY LEGAL

DEAR FINALLY LEGAL: I'm happy to hear that you have gotten your license. It opens up more doors for you by making you eligible to work "Security" posts. Remember, you must have your guard card with you at all times when you are on duty. DPS may issue you a citation if you are working without your guard card. Getting your security shirt is easy. All you need to do is bring your guard card with you to the office. We will have you sign the uniform deposit form to payroll deduct the deposit for the uniform. That's all there is to it! Once you have your security shirt you need to make sure to bring it with you for every shift. I an effort to be more consistent, we are requiring that ALL licensed security guards wear "SECURITY" shirts and ALL non-licensed employees wear "STAFF" shirts. So make sure that you have your security shirt with you for every shift.

DEAR FRANKIE: My girlfriend and I joined T.E.A.M. together about 6 months ago. We have had a lot of fun while working here. Unfortunately, we are having some problems. We were working a sorority party last weekend and while I was working I got a couple of phone numbers. (It was awesome, I was a stud)...but my girlfriend was also at the event, so needless to say things have become...."bad". I don't want to quit, and she won't quit, so how

TAZ THOUGHTS

"Life is 10% of what happens to me and 90% of how I react to it."
John Maxwell

TAZ TOOLBOX

There are times in our life when we need to take action.

If we think of an action and do something about it, we have started a process.

The process will have a result of what has been put into it.

Sometimes we are not in control of who contributes to the process and thus creating a different result than what we may have imagined. It doesn't change the effort we contributed. It still counts.

Focus on the effort we put in and not the result.

With a little more knowledge through experience, we now can contribute more thus controlling the effort by outside sources and producing a more likable result.

Let us not forget where we started, a thought put into action which developed results which gave us knowledge to change our lives.

TAZ TOOLBOX

I wanted to say thank you to all of the employees of T.E.A.M. I appreciate the effort and hard work each one of you bring to the table. We are ALL a team. Each and every one of you is very important to do the job well. If one goes down so does the efficiency and use of the others. It makes it much more difficult to provide the same service with only some contribution. 100% of one is still only 100%, however 1% of 100 times 1% creates so much more potential for the rest of the people.

John Paul Getty once said "I'd rather have 1% of 100 people than 100% of myself".

100% of 1 is 100%...100% of 100 is 10,000%. From my point of view, I'd rather have everyone join together for a cause, a mission, a purpose and work together side by side to accomplish Greatness.

To achieve Greatness we must first start by doing what's necessary, then do what's possible, and suddenly we are doing the impossible. It's all about TEAMWORK, about dividing the task and doubling the results.

Everyone will not be on board with this concept. Will you! It will be lots of work and some fun along the way. Relationships built on both sides. Likes and dislikes, good and bad. In the end though, through all of the trials and tribulations we will prevail!

I was talking to a millionaire one day. Something he said seemed so simple that I did not even get what he meant until later down the road. His quote, "I'd rather aim for the stars and miss then aim for the ditch and hit it".

If you keep your head up and positively train your mind, you WILL be successful in everything you do. You will fail more than you succeed, just don't stop working.

Life is hard,...get used to it. Enjoy the struggles and hardships. Then you will truly enjoy the triumphs!

See you soon.....TAZ

February 1, 2003 - Sixteen minutes before it was scheduled to land, the Space Shuttle Columbia broke apart in flight over west Texas, killing all seven crew members. HOW Fights Start

My wife sat down on the couch next to me as I was flipping channels. She asked, 'What's on TV?'
I said, 'Dust.'
And then the fight started...

My wife and I were watching "Who Wants To Be A Millionaire" while we were in bed. I turned to her and said, "Do you want to have sex?"
"No," she answered..
I then said, "Is that your final answer?"
She didn't even look at me this time, simply saying, "Yes."
So I said, "Then I'd like to phone a friend."
And then the fight started.....

I rear-ended a car this morning. So, there we were alongside the road and slowly the other driver got out of his car. You know how sometimes you just get soooo stressed and little things just seem funny? Yeah, well I couldn't believe it.... He was a DWARF!!! He stormed over to my car, looked up at me, and shouted, "I AM NOT HAPPY!!!"

So, I looked down at him and said, "Well, then which one are you?"
And then the fight started.....

My wife was hinting about what she wanted for our upcoming anniversary. She said, 'I want something shiny that goes from 0 to 150 in about 3 seconds.'
I bought her a bathroom scale.
And then the fight started ...

When I got home last night, my wife demanded that I take her some place expensive... so, I took her to a petrol station.
And then the fight started...

After retiring, I went to the Social Security office to apply for Social Security. The woman behind the counter asked me for my driver's License to verify my age. I looked in my pockets and realized I had left my wallet at home. I told the woman that I was very sorry, but I would have to go home and come back later.
The woman said, 'Unbutton your shirt'. So I opened my shirt revealing my curly silver hair. She said, 'That silver hair on your chest is proof enough for me' and she processed my Social Security application.
When I got home, I excitedly told my wife about my experience at the Social Security office.
She said, 'You should have dropped your pants. You might have gotten disability, too.'
And then the fight started...

My wife and I were sitting at a table at my school reunion, and I kept staring at a drunken lady swigging her drink as she sat alone at a nearby table. My wife asked, 'Do you know her?' 'Yes,' I sighed, 'She's my old girlfriend. I understand she took to drinking right after we split up those many years ago, and I hear she hasn't been sober since.'
'My God!' says my wife, 'who would think a person could go on celebrating that long?'

Mick Hirko

What a great way to start the new year! After a great New Year's eve (with the exception of D.J. getting beaten up at Westgate by some little guy...) And a really well run Barrett-Jackson event (we did lose 2 employees, but we believe they are safe. They were last seen in a canoe rowing to the Rio Grande II, aka the polo field) Add really good Supercross and Monster Truck events at Chase Field to a really great month, and we can only hope that is an omen of what this year is going to be like.

We were also notified that we were ranked #2 in both the Arizona Business Journal and in Ranking Arizona Magazine under the category of best security companies in the State. We are especially proud, in that we are the only event security company ranked, and that high ranking among over 300 companies is a lot to be proud of, and it entirely attributable to all of your hard work and dedication. We thank all of you!

As a further recognition of all of your hard work, we were just offered (and accepted) a 5 year security staffing and equipment contract with Jobing.com Arena. Thank you very much Jim and Sam in your continued faith in us. We will not let you down.

In spite of some rumors that may have been spread about Grandon (or maybe because of them), we have been asked to come back out and join him for another lively and fun filled season at the big outdoor amphitheater on the west side of the valley which we cannot mention by name. (Those pesky lawyers). I suspect that the departure of Biffany might have something to do with it, so that Grandon can at least see some people that were there last year. Just kidding, we all know, Danny Taylor, Otis and the whole Live Nation crew will be out there. And I do hope that the real reason Grandon wanted us back is because we do a great job!!

Every year we set a motto, a motivation for us all to guide us. This year we should have set 2. The one we set as a guide is: "Making a Difference". We truly want what we do and what we give to our community to make a difference. We work all over the state, and for many of us it is more than just a job, it is a belief in certain principles such as honor, honesty, integrity and character. With those values come certain principles and obligations. As such, we have a strong sense of belonging, and community. We care about what we do, about our clients and their guests. We will strive this year to make a bigger impact, finding other ways to give back to the community and to be more responsible to our world in our actions. It sounds very big, but it is often the small things that do matter. We all can do things to help our community, from assisting patrons more, helping clean up and pick up garbage when you see it on the ground, plan your trips better to save on fuel, to giving to the Haiti relief organizations, to the Red Cross, the WHO(World Hunger Organization), the American Heart Association, or one of the many other great charities, or just volunteering to your community. Start a block watch, or participate in one. So many cities are cutting back on services, there are a million different things you can volunteer for. Try to make a difference, and at the same time if you see an opportunity for us to help, let us know.

As many of you know, as a company and myself as a person, we strongly support our troops. I started a little game of luck to raise money to help the families of soldiers deployed in combat, so if you want to try your luck and are in the office, it sits on Kendra's front counter. All profits will go to aid soldier families.

Well, the second motto which we should have set, and didn't was: "Get to work at USAC". Last year after the All Star Game, I heard Mr. Jon Bloom mumble: "Thank God it will be at least a decade before they come back". I thought he was talking about the NBA All Stars, but I now think he meant us. Clear and I are going to sneak into his building this month, so we can at least say we were in it in 2010. So, our other goal is to get to work at the U.S. Airways Center this year. Maybe if we can figure out some way to give back and work there at the same time...?

In all seriousness, we are all looking forward to a great 2010. We know 2009 was not a good year for many, for lots of reasons. 2010 is already starting off good, and we hope it is a sign of things to come. We are not only thankful, but very appreciate to all of our clients, and that through good times and bad, we continue to work together, help provide safe and fun events and facilities and keep building more great relationships. In over 16 years, we have accomplished a lot, and we never forget that we are only as good as our employees, and you all are the best!!! Thank you all, and may all of your hopes for 2010 be fulfilled. Be safe, keep the peace (In other words, stay away from Dave Ellis) and I will see you out there.
